

CRITERIA FOR THE PSA AWARDS:

1. Quintin J Gomez Jr, Award for Excellence is the most distinguished award given by the Society to an Individual or an institution with the following criteria:

A. Person

The nominee:

1. Must be a PSA member of good standing.
2. Should have professional competence and unquestionable integrity.
3. Should have made outstanding contributions to improve the practice of Anesthesiology in the Philippines in terms of education, clinical practice, research and social responsibility.
4. Must be recognized by both local and international scientific and civic communities. International recognition may be in the form of speakership, publication, or active membership in an international anesthesia or health-related committee.
5. Must exhibit creativity and resilience in fostering safe and effective practice as well as continued education of trainees of Anesthesiology in the Philippines amidst the COVID-19 pandemic.

B. Institution

The institution:

1. Must have an established track record of competent trainers and educators who could be role models for the country's future anesthesiologists.
2. Should have consistently produced quality peer-reviewed scientific publications and/or innovations in the field of anesthesiology.
3. Should be an advocate of continuous quality improvement and patient safety.
4. Should have provided anesthesia care to diverse sectors of the Filipino community.
5. Must exhibit creativity and resilience in fostering safe and effective practice as well as continued education of trainees of Anesthesiology in the Philippines amidst the COVID-19 pandemic.

2. The Manuel V Silao Award for Leadership in Anesthesiology is given to an individual who is a member of good standing in the society, has been in active practice for at least 15 years and has demonstrated the following exemplary attributes of a good leader:

1. Effectiveness – effects positive change
2. Innovation – innovative strategies that improves people's lives
3. Helps unify people of different views & background
4. Motivating mentees/ members

3. The PSA Most Outstanding Chapter (MOC) Award Criteria:

The MOC Award is given to the PSA Regional Chapter in good standing that has demonstrated growth and development in the specialty of anesthesiology through its various activities that contributed immensely to the upliftment of the profession and the improvement of anesthesia service in their communities